MAPLE GROVE. Mrs. Emily K. Boody formerly a resident at Chesterfield, now of Morenci was visiting old friends last week. On Saturday she was at the Kueper home, Sunday morning Mr. Ferdinand Kueper with his sister, Miss Susie and Mrs. Boody drove to Mrs. Julia Aldrich's home for a visit with her.

Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Seibold and Mrs. Mary Aldrich were callers at Maple Grove home Sunday afternoon, when going out to the farm. The descendants of Puritan blue laws look shocked at that of a call on Sunday, but the auto makes possible a Sunday call with less denigration than the boisterous ball playing so common now on Sunday, and to which some of all denominations go, as a perfectly proper reglement between services.

Mr. W. B. McClarren and family autoed to the picnic on Sunday and on their homeward trip called on Mrs. Julia Aldrich.

Mr. Alfred Worley of Toledo was a visitor with his parents over Sunday and took his niece, Lela and Lola Cleveland, that have been with their grandparents through the summer to their home in Toledo Sunday.

Mrs. D. J. Worley and Mrs. Eliza Patterson called on Mrs. Aldrich Sunday evening.

Miss Elizabeth Trudel visited over Sunday with her folks in the new South Dover home.

A Distinctive Reason

What is the chief reason for the superiority of Royal Baking Powder? There are several good reasons, but there is one which distinguishes Royal from other baking powders.

This reason, which every woman should know, is that Royal Baking Powder is made from cream of tartar, which comes from grapes. This means a healthful fruit origin. It means natural food as distinguished from mineral substitutes used in other baking powders.

There is no alum nor phosphate in Royal Baking Powder.

A Boon to Those Who Have Strayed
Down the Hill of Life.

Are we paying all the attention to the comforts of our old folks who are treading in the long shadows of life, that they justly deserve? When they complain of not feeling well, don't we too often pass lightly over their condition, believing that their ills are due entirely to old age, which man cannot overcome. One should realize that elderly people are more susceptible to sluggishness of the organs than younger people, who daily exercising, have the advantage of healthful outdoor life. The trouble with most elderly people is that they let debility sap away their vitality. A condition of debility, never wears itself out. Instead it gradually grows more pronounced unless proper methods to check it are taken. It gathers force and nourishes itself upon the tissues of the body. To build up these tissues is to fight debility.

So many of us have been seeking some really efficient remedy to give our old folks. That remedy must contain the proper tonic qualities to revitalize sluggish organs and blood. It is not a courageous thing to let debility sap away the life and energy of our old folks when it can be stayed. Tonic, the new reconstructive tonic and invigorant, has been a boon to the aged conditions of debility both in old and young are nervousness, headaches, depression of spirits, loss of appetite, pains in the stomach, back and limbs, sleeplessness and general run-down good-for-nothing feeling that comes from lack of energy.

Tonic is designed to combat these conditions in many ways. It is a splendid tonic and tissue builder with just the correct amount of proteids, quick nerves and add dizziness. It quiets nerves and brings back restful sleep, which is Nature's first aid to the debilitated. It corrects stomach troubles and there, in nine cases out of ten, you have the seat of a nervous, debilitating ailment.

With the body recharged with vigor that detested, despondent feeling vanishes and a mighty regretful that you didn't start out to fight it long before. Tonic is being especially introduced in Wauseon, Ohio, at the Fink & Haumesser Drug Store, where the Tonic Man daily explains its merits and what may be expected from its use.

FRECKLES A BIG SUCCESS

The Broadway Amusement Co., will present Gene Stratton Porter's "Freckles" at the Princess Theatre, Friday night, September 29th. There has been nothing produced in the history of the American stage just like "Freckles." It is distinctive and original, but of such absorbing interest that it is not difficult to understand why the millions of fiction readers have delighted in the story, the way the same play has become so popular with all classes of theatre goers.

In his dramatization, Neil Twomey has kept faithfully to the text. Mrs. Porter's story, every character has been brought out in bold relief in the play, and where the picture was in the mind's eye of the reader, it is now in the actual line of vision.

The great Limberlost scene, in which Freckles has taken hold on life, is realistically shown. It is a beautiful stage picture with the thickness of the swamp forming a dark massive background below, while above, tower gigantic trees.

The coming of "Freckles" will be a theatrical event just as it was an event in fiction; the song play is now as great a success as the story and is playing to immense crowds everywhere.

The music for the play and the songs rendered by Freckles and the various characters are by the Viennese Composer, Ansel Friedland, is said to be a novelty from a musical point of view and the songs among the most beautiful heard in a long time.

Don't Neglect Your Cold. Neglected colds get worse, instead of better. A stuffed head, a tight chest must be relieved at once. Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey is Nature's remedy. Honey and glycerine heal the irritated membrane, antiseptic tar loosens the phlegm, you breathe easier and your cold is broken up. Pleasant to take, Dr. Bell's Pine-Tar-Honey is an ideal remedy for children as well as grown-ups. At Your Druggist, 25c.

DO YOU Maintain a polluted well and then complain about the undertaker's bill? Carry a fine handkerchief and then forget to cover your mouth when you cough?

Cured Her Two Little Girls. Mrs. Ada Sanders, Cottonwood, Tenn., writes: "We use Foley's Kidney and Tar as our best and only cough remedy. It never fails to cure my two little girls when they have colds." Relieves hoarseness, tickling throat, bronchitis, hay fever, asthma, croup, Fink & Haumesser.

Tonight! FRECKLES! Big song hits. Beautiful scenery and strong cast of players and singers.

DOES THE BIBLE TEACH A SECOND DEFINITE WORK OF GRACE

This subject has puzzled the minds of many even of ministers, and is the source of much controversy. Some call it a second work, some a second blessing. Well, I have no criticism to offer concerning these terms, but I prefer calling it a completion of the work begun. The work is begun in justification, completed in sanctification. The former is a work done for us; the latter a work done in us. I am well aware it will be a little difficult to me plain, to the reader, the difference between these two states of grace, especially if he lacks the experience. But I will undertake the task, hoping he may get some good out of it.

In Cor. 12, 31 we read "Yet show I unto you a more excellent way." Now, if there is a more excellent way then there must be an excellent way or our grammars are laboring under a tremendous mistake. Then the question naturally arises, who is in the excellent way and who is in the more excellent way?

The bible represents the sinner as being dead in trespass and sin, evil and that continually—full of putrefying sores. So he is surely not in an excellent way, because all his actual sins, sins that he created are eliminated. He stands acquitted before God. He is holy in a justified sense but he is not in a sanctified sense. That person will live up to all the light he has he will grow in grace. But the carnal mind, the old man as Paul has termed it, is not crucified in justification therefore he is a great hindrance to the christian's growth in grace; a hindrance to do the things God would have him do. If he should die in this condition he would be saved but scarcely saved. Peter 4, 18.

The manifestations of carnality are various. Name, anger, avarice, ambition, covetousness, pride, etc. Honor of man instead of the honor that comes from God only, etc. The eradication of carnality is the only cure for these hindrances. The old man must be crucified. This is done in sanctification by the baptism of the Holy Ghost which is the result of a full and complete consecration. (Rom. 12.) that removed all these hindrances. That person is surely in a more excellent way. If he should die in this condition he would have an abundant entrance into the kingdom of heaven. 2nd Peter 1, 11. The justified person is satisfied but not wholly. The sanctified person is wholly satisfied. 2nd Peter 3, 5, 23. The work is completed in sanctification. The devil hates a sanctified person more than a justified one because he is better prepared to do effective damage to his kingdom.

When our lives harmonize with Cor. 13 we are surely in the more excellent way (sanctification). God wants us to be where we can live in that chapter. If it were impossible for us to live in that chapter, He never would have put it in the bible. The man in the 12th chapter of Paul is warning them against schisms in the body. I am sorry to say these divisions will continue until carnality is eradicated. The 12th chapter has quite a different jingle to it. The old man is dead and buried and perfect love reigns and rules in the heart of the true christian. I am well assured that if we as professing christians were living in 1, Cor. 13 we would see such a spiritual conflagration sweep over this country that we could scarcely cry out as one of old, "Lord, what wilt thou have me to do." Let me say in conclusion, you know it is much easier to swim in deep water than to live up to all God has for us. His storehouse of good things is inexhaustible. Let us walk up and help ourselves and stop this living on half ration.

THEY KNOW IT PAYS. The R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company of Winston, Salem, North Carolina, who have made themselves known to the public through the advertising of their products particularly the Prince Albert Smoking Tobacco, have grown since 1910 to be the largest Tobacco Manufacturers in the United States. The R. J. Reynolds company believe that Newspaper advertising is GOOD advertising for that is the kind they are using. The increase in the business of this firm is little short of phenomenal and the methods followed to secure this increase in a remarkably short time are worthy of the consideration of all business men. Goods of merit, aggressive advertising and open business methods will make success.

HIBBARD. Arvah, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Hibbard, was born in Archbold, Ohio, January 3, 1904 and died of diphtheria in a hospital in Detroit, Michigan, September 16, 1916, aged twelve years, eight months and twelve days. Her bright sunny disposition, kind and affectionate ways made her a favorite with all who knew her. She was much interested in school work, the Sunday School and Christian Endeavor Society, always gladly filling her appointed place wherever it changed to be. On Saturday afternoon the boy was brought from Detroit, then taken to the Spring Hill cemetery where short services were held at the grave. The family have the sympathy of all in their bereavement.

TRADITIONS LOST IN WAR

Wars work the most surprising results, and the present war is no exception, and has resulted in two notable conditions: one in England, the other in Russia.

The daughter of the well-to-do class in England has from time immemorial been hedged about with all manner of restrictions. She has known nothing of the freedom of opportunity which American girls in the same social level have enjoyed as a matter of fact. The demand for men for enlistment in England has naturally been a heavy drain on all kinds of work which had hitherto been performed almost exclusively by men. This created vacancies in occupations which were possible to be filled by women.

And so today in London one finds, as conductors on the thousands of motor buses, young women, suitably dressed for the work, filling the places made vacant by men who have gone to the front. The passenger elevators in most of the cities are operated by women. Thousands of motor taxicabs throughout the country are driven by young women. Girls from families of wealth and refinement have left their schools, corresponding to our Wellesley and Vassar, to return home and take positions as stenographers and clerks, who never before in all their lives had even seen a typewriting machine. In cases where the salary they earn is not needed, they donate the entire amount each month to some one of the funds for the relief of wounded soldiers or their families. These girls cannot go to the front, but they make it possible for some young man to do so.

To an American girl this seems no more than the logical, obvious thing to do, and only those who know from personal observation the severity of the restrictions in England will realize what a startling departure from what was the "correct thing" all from an American viewpoint, the hope is that when peace is restored, out of it all will come a greatly enlarged life for English women. Indeed, it seems hardly possible that there can ever be an entire restoration to the old order of affairs.

The other startling condition was the use which with one motion converted a vodka-soaked nation to temperance. To take vodka from a Russian peasant was like taking beer from a German, although the former carried a vastly more injurious. The results of this voluntary temperance are reported as most interesting, one of which is sudden and tremendous increase in savings-banks deposits and accounts, and greatly increased efficiency in the masses. It is pleasing and heartening to have these two pic-
